DO YOU LIKE SPORTS?

Surfing

The imposing Zicatela beach is considered one of the best to practice this sport around the world. In November there are tournaments where surfers from all over the world meet.

Sport fishing

Without the fame of some other resorts, Puerto Escondido has awesome fishing. Sailfish, marlin, tuna and red snapper are among the species you are expected to catch in an outing. And, you know what... at the Posada Real hotel, we will cook your catch of the day and serve it to your liking. International fishing competitions are regularly held in February and November.

Diving

Puerto Escondido offers calm diving spots, with a great variety of colorful tropical fish and where mother-of-pearl, lobsters and manta rays abound. There are also coral reefs worth visiting.

These are our recommendations

Sunsets

Sunsets are incredible anywhere in Puerto Escondido. Undoubtedly, one of the very best sunset observation spots is at the Posada Real Puerto Escondido hotel gardens (Bacocho beach), particularly while sipping a delightful Piña Colada or Margarita.

Boat rides

In Puerto Escondido you can rent boats to make all kinds of personal or family tours around the bay, or to explore neighboring beaches. One of the most popular, to sight and literally touch sea turtles swimming in the ocean. A remarkable experience for young and old.

Chacahua lagoon

Located just over 1 hour north of Puerto Escondido, Chacahua lagoon is one of the important bird sanctuaries in Mexico. The boat ride through the lagoon is a very exciting and unforgettable experience. It includes reaching the bar that separates the lagoon from the Pacific Ocean, a visit to a crocodile farm, and breathtaking fast navigation through mangrove channels that are habitat for waterfowl and songbirds.

Manialtepec lagoon - Bioluminescence

A short 10 minute drive from Puerto Escondido, this lagoon is surrounded by mangroves that are habitats for waterfowl, songbirds and iguanas. Ideal to contemplate the magnificent sunset at "bocabarra", where the lagoon, the river and the sea meet. At night, you can observe the phenomenon of bioluminescence, phosphorescence in the water that occurs when making contact with it. The captain of the boat will invite the crew, who wish to do so, to swim next to the boat, causing beautiful sparks of light when moving in the water.

Ventanilla

This community started an ecological rescue program that includes the reforestation of mangroves and the repopulation of crocodiles. In addition to hatchlings, you can observe adult amphibian reptiles in their natural habitat.

Atotonilco / Hot Springs

An adventure going up the Manialtepec River on horseback, along the slopes of the low mountain jungle, to a natural sprout of sulfurous waters where you can take a relaxing and medicinal bath.

Laguna de Manialtepec

Ventanilla

"Reforma" cascade

Natural water runoffs that emanate from the coastal mountains, forming a beautiful waterfall approximately 180 ft. high.

Mazunte / Mexican Turtle Center

Government project committed to preserve the survival of sea turtles in the region. The visiting public can tour live exhibits of different species of turtles that inhabit the planet and learn about their way of life and survival needs.

Culture and traditions

Puerto Escondido is surrounded by a large number of small villages that preserve old traditions and where you can try an exotic variety of food, family made mezcal or buy locally produced handcrafts.

EAT, DRINK & MORE

Adoquin

Puerto Escondido is rapidly becoming the counterpart of Playacar, in the Maya Riviera. Countless small restaurants and bars are opening, informal in nature, with a great atmosphere. Ask the Posada Real concierge how to get to Punta Zicatela for an unforgettable night of entertainment.

PUERTO ESCONDIDO... HOW TO GET THERE?

a) By air: very well connected with Mexico City, with daily flights offered by Viva Aerobús, Aeromar, Interjet and Volaris; from Guadalajara, twice a week flights available with Volaris; daily flights from the city Oaxaca with Aerotucán and Aeromar. Huatulco's airport, 1 hour away by land from Puerto Escondido, has numerous additional airline connections to Mexico City and other Mexican cities. Transportation from the hotel, to and from Huatulco's airport, is available through the travel agencies located on the Posada Real premises.

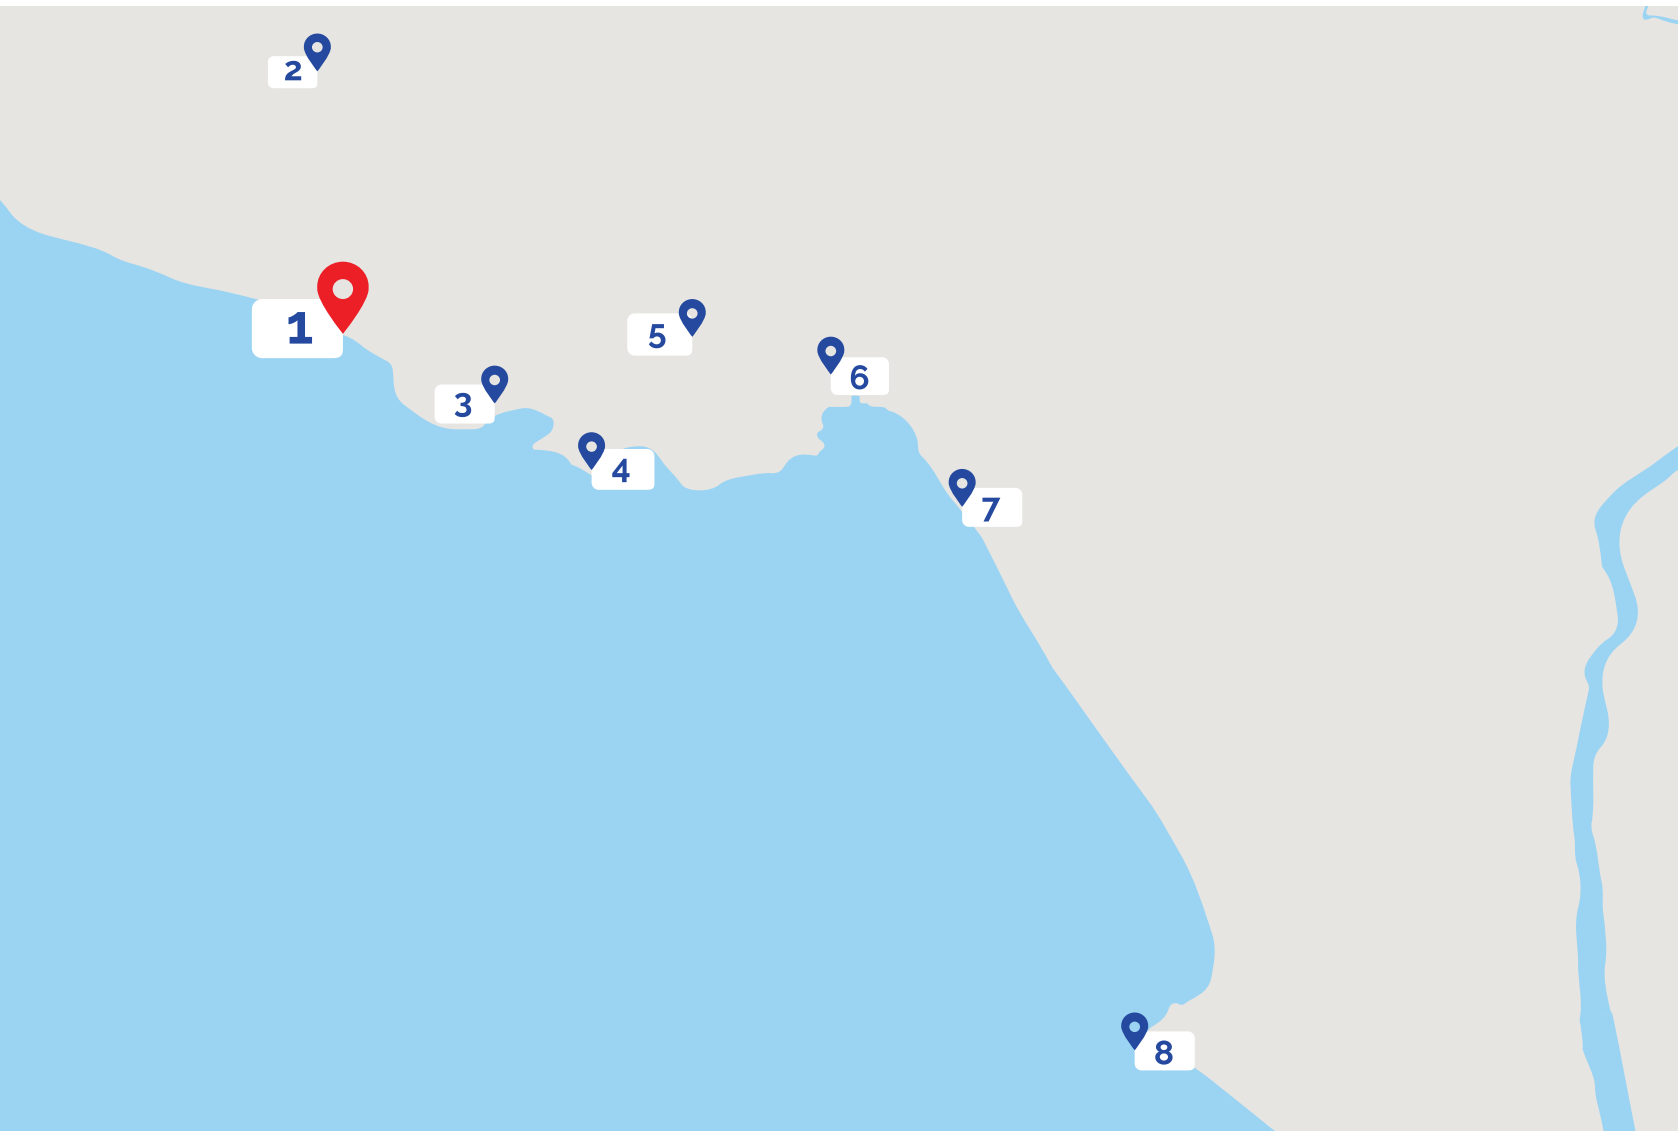

Airport of Puerto Escondido

b) By land: Federal highway No. 200 connects Puerto Escondido with Acapulco, to the north, and with Huatulco's airport, Huatulco and Salina Cruz, to the south. In turn, Acapulco is connected to Mexico City by a modern highway. Currently it is possible to travel by land from Puerto Escondido to the city of Oaxaca through federal highway No. 131, a winding scenic rural road. A modern highway is under construction that will substantially reduce the duration and improve the safety of that trip. Completion is expected by 2022.
